“Under the guidance of ‘March Against Terror USA,’ and the FIT-SWAT program (Fully Intact and Trained-Stand Watch Against Terrorism), we will observe the ‘National Day of Readiness and Vigilance’ throughout the County of Los Angeles on September 11th of each year, in order to encourage greater readiness and vigilance against terrorism, preserve the memory of the victims killed on September 11, 2001, other victims of terror, and honor those who are actively combating global terrorism.”
